

COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES

1. Compare the three kids using the adjectives: tall, short, young, old in the comparative and superlative forms.

Liz	10 years old
Anna	11 years old
Mark	12 years old

2. Use the given adjectives in the correct form:

- This is the _____ place in the world. (beautiful)
- He is the _____ in my class. (tall)
- She is _____ at Music than me. (good)
- Who is the _____ in your family? (old)
- February is the _____ month. (short)
- A snail is _____ than a snake. (small)
- A tiger is _____ than a zebra. (dangerous)
- They are _____ today than yesterday. (happy)
- Russia is the _____ country in the world. (big)
- The red car is _____ than white one. (expensive)

3. Complete the sentences with adjectives in the right forms:

- A cheetah is _____ than a monkey.
- This is the _____ car I know.
- The book is _____ than the movie.
- Summer is _____ than winter.
- Chocolate is _____ than lollipops.
- Eating vegetables is _____ than eating sweets.
- The Pacific Ocean is the _____ ocean in the world.
- This building is the _____ in our town.
- This is the _____ film I have ever seen.
- Who is the _____ in your family?

4. Make sentences with the following forms: cheaper, more difficult, heavier, easier, more interesting, the most useful, the funniest, the most expensive, the happiest, the most beautiful